TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 27, 1853. FCURTH OF JULY CELEBRATION.

There will be a celebration on the 4th of July at Beech Valley, at which time and place Col. MARSHALL and L. A. WEATHRFORD, Esq., are ex pected to deliver addresses. A general invitation is given to all.

MADAME ADOLPH.

To-day and to-morrow are the two last days of MADAME ADOLPH's stay in Nashville. Those who wish to consult this famous fortune-teller should, therefore, be certain to call without delay.

FOR THE UNION AND AMERICAN.] MESSAS. EDITORS:-I perceive by a communication in the Gazette of Saturday, that the Dramatic Club, recently organized in this city, has broken up. This is not as it should be; the young gentlemen should persevere in upholding the organization, and with patience and perseverance there is "no such word as fail." They should also advertise their meetings, which, if done, would no doubt call the attention of many young ladies and getulemen to it. The object of this Association is indeed praiseworthy, and our young people should take great pleasure in belonging to such a Club. For I really cannot see why they should not. Surely not for any religious scruples. For many of our brightest ornaments of the Pulpit have contributed largely by their dramatic productions to the permanency of the Stage in this

I, for one, would be most happy to see such an association permanently organized in our city, and indeed it is a shame that Nashville is the only city in our Union that cannot boast of any association whatever, that would tend to enlighten and bring forth the genius and intelligence of our of which they form so interesting a portion young men.

"Fellow citizens," says the New York Sunday Times, and as the remarks are most peculiarly appropriate at our present writing, we cordially adopt m-Fellow-citizens-as you sprawl on your nofa this pleasant forenoon, or make an inverted Z of yourself by propping your chair-back against the wall, you probably think it must be easy to write what you find it easy to read. Did you ever plough, hoe corn, or plant cabbages! We have been engaged in all these rural exercises, and have a so swung the scythe and cradle under the hot san of the South; and we solemnly declare that the physical labors aforesaid are mere recreations in comparison with the exhausting toil of writing for the press in a close office with a south-western aspect, when the thermometer is in the neighborhood of the nineties. The vigorous ideas that should find their way by electric telegraph from the brain to the pen, liqui'y on the road and ooze out in big globules of perspiration, while the more delicate fancies evaporate by the "insensible" proceas. Excuse, therefore, the short-comings of enius under the sudorific influence of the summer solstice; for be assured that a vertical sun. however it may duloify and mature cherries, plums and other fruital "plumpitudes," is by no means favorable to the development of intellectual pro-

A Good March.-The ships George Law, of New York, Captain Cooper, and Rubicon, of Boston, Capta'n Doane, which left New York for San Francisco, the former on the 18th of May, 1852, the latter on the 14th, entered San Francisco side by side, and sailed again together for the East Indies, touching again at Honolulu both on the same day. They arrived at and departed from Singapore together and both proceeded to Akyab. where they arrived at the same time.

The Dunkirk Journal relates the narrow escape from death of a woman and infant who fell between the cars of the State Line railroad, while the train was in motion. The woman had sufficient pre sence of mind to remain flat on the ground between the rails, holding the child in the same position; and when the train had passed, the horrified passengers, who expected to behold the mangled remains of two human beings, found both the mother and the child unharmed.

THE MORMONS .- The Aleck Scott brought up from New Orleans to St. Louis, one hundred and thirty-five Marmons. They were chiefly from England, a healthy, clean and tidy looking people, en route for Salt Lake, under the charge of Elder Bolton. They proceed immedately to Keokuk, and from thence will go to the city of Great Salt

Gen. Riley's funeral, at Buffalo, on Saturday, was attended by a large-number of citizens and military. Appropriate honors have been ordered by the Secretary of War to be paid to the memory of the deceased by the officers of the army.

A clerk in a mercantile house in New York absconded on Monday, with about $500 in gold. Lightning struck him at Newark, N. J., and in nineteen hours from the time he left the store he was back and in the tombs.

BODY SNATCHERS - The physicians of Mt. Etna, Huntington county, Ia., have stirred up quite a lively little fuss, by robbing graves for dissection subjects. One of the doctors cut stick before arrest and trial, and the others did afterward, to escape Lynch code.
